SPONSORSHIP PROPOSAL

“The U.S. Bureau of Economic Analysis reports that the arts and culture sector is a $699 billion industry, which represents 4.3 percent of the nation’s GDP—a larger share of the economy than transportation and agriculture “ -Americans for the Arts

About WetPaintATL

WetPaintATL brings to life the art of expression by creating a unique channel for artists to exhibit their work. WetPaintATL is the vision of artist, George Lenoir, of Lenoir Designs, LLC. His goal has been to provide an alternative avenue for artists to exhibit artwork. WetPaintATL has served the purpose of enhancing the visibility of all artists, regardless of ethnic background and artistic resume. The organization seeks unique, talented artists for their bi-annual art events. The exhilarating twist is that artists are performing live amongst loyal art followers.

Since 2013 WetPaintATL has been hosting live paint exhibitions showcasing some of Atlanta’s most talented artists in the areas of fine art on canvas, face painting, body painting, tattoos/piercing to jewelry making and custom bowties.

WetPaintATL Art Exhibitions

WetPaintATL takes the art show and turns it on its head, with the featured artist showcasing their talents live at the event. This exhilarating event exposes patrons to the creative process, provides a social and networking forum, not to mention an art marketplace.

The organization looks to be a creative platform by introducing artists to the novice and avid art collector. Past events have created a following, exposing attendees to a one-of-a-kind sensorial experience. Coming summer 2016, patrons will once again be able to admire body painting listen to music, cocktails, mingle and socialize, while they observe the many forms of art. Patrons can purchase various custom designs including fine art, graffiti writing, tattooing and jewelry.

WetPaintATL has grown to feature over 20 artists and vendors and is continuing to grow with each event.

Target Market

The arts are fundamental to our humanity. They ennoble and inspire us—fostering creativity, goodness, and beauty. The arts help us express our values, build bridges between cultures, and bring us together regardless of ethnicity, religion, or age. When times are tough, art is salve for the ache.

The nonprofit arts industry alone generates $135 billion in economic activity annually (spending by organizations and their audiences) that supports 4.1 million jobs and generates $22.3 billion in government revenue.

Generally speaking, attendees at arts events spend $24.60 per person, per event, beyond the cost of admission on items such as meals, parking, and babysitters. Attendees who live outside the county in which the arts event takes place spend twice as much as their local counterparts ($39.96 vs. $17.42)—valuable revenue for local businesses and the community.

Not only does the arts contribute positively to the economy, but also sharpens and promotes the skills businesses are looking for. The Conference Board reports that creativity is among the top 5 applied skills sought by business leaders—with 72 percent saying creativity is of high importance when hiring. The biggest creativity indicator continues to be a college arts degree. Ready to Innovate reports concludes, “The arts—music, creative writing, drawing, dance—provide skills sought by employers of the 3rd millennium.” Nobel laureates in the sciences are 17 times more likely to be actively engaged in the arts than average scientists. (Research Reports, 2015)

WetPaintATL has carved out an impactful audience, creating a premium channel for advertisers and sponsors to effectively expose their brand. WetPaintATL supporters are equally male and female, with the majority being college graduates earning an average income of $35,000-$80,000 who enjoy art, nightlife and are socially diverse. Below is a snap shot of the ever-growing social medial, internet and email list for WetPaintATL.
